The water production meter measures all water pumped and treated. A flow recorder records total production.

Flow from the well will activate control of the fluoride saturator at the required rate. The fluoride solution pump injects the fluoride solution into the main line.

All equipment is to be housed in a secure area.